Welcome

Dear 4-H Families,

Welcome to the Potter County 4-H program! Through the 4-H program we are able to provide youth the opportunity to learn and develop important life skills through a variety of hands on learning experiences.

The 4-H Program has a variety of project areas for everyone's interest. 4-H members participate in many activities which can include everything from food & nutrition to showing livestock. With the wide array of 4-H projects and activities available, many new members do not understand the overall process or the time commitment that comes with some of our projects.

The 4-H program is designed to be a family affair, so 4-H parents are encouraged to get involved in the 4-H experience. Ways that 4-H parents can contribute to the experience range from serving as a project leader to providing transportation to activities, or even supplying refreshments for meetings or special events.

This guide has been developed to assist both new and more experienced 4-H families. No matter if you are a new 4-H Member or a "veteran," this handbook is helpful in making your time in the 4-H program a success. We hope that this will be a quick reference guide for you to use to make your 4-H experience more enjoyable. If you have any questions, feel free to contact the Extension Office, your club manager, or a project leader.

We look forward to your participation in the Potter County 4-H!

Thanks,

Cari Snider

The 4-H Difference

What is 4-H All About?

4-H is a community of youth across not only Texas, but the United States who are learning leadership, citizenship, and life skills. The 4-H program is all about having fun and making 4-H work for you! In 4-H, young people get a chance to make new friends, develop new skills, and find new passions.

What Do You Do in 4-H?

4-H about offering hands-on experiences to youth so they are able to "learn by doing".

Members participate in a variety of learning experiences called 4-H projects. These 4-H projects are a specific area of interest for that 4-H member. The best part about 4-H is some of these projects can be self-directed or done in a group setting. With over 40 projects areas to choose from in the Texas 4-H program, there are opportunities for everyone interested.

Project areas in 4-H range from our traditional livestock projects to some of the more non-traditional of robotics and everything in between!

What Does a 4-H Club Do?

When enrolling in the 4-H program on 4-HOnline, you are asked which 4-H club you want to be a member of. This 4-H club will be the main way of finding out what is happening within Potter County 4-H! These clubs will elect their own officers and conduct their own business throughout the 4-H year. The business meetings are on a regular basis, depending on the manager of your club these meeting could take place monthly, bi-monthly, or even quarterly, During the business meetings, usually a club will make plans for upcoming activities, host community service events, or have educational programs planned. These educational programs might be presented by fellow 4-H members, county extension agents, or even members of a specific industry (a vet, beekeeper, etc.).

Potter 4-H Newsletter

With over 200 4-H members in Potter County 4-H, our monthly newsletter is the number one form of communication between all 4-H'ers, parents, and the Extension Office. It is the responsibility of the 4-H'er to read the newsletter to stay up to date on everything happening in Potter County 4-H. The newsletter contains information like upcoming dates, contest, or educational opportunities. The newsletter can be found on our county webpage, the email account that you submitted when registering on 4-HOnline, and through social media.

4-H Membership Policy

Any person, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, religion, disability or national origin, may enroll as a 4-H member.

Texas 4-H activities and events are open to enrolled members between the ages of 9 (or 8 AND in the 3rd grade) and 18 on August 31.

Events that require registration, certification or entry during the summer prior to the beginning of the 4-H year – County Extension agents may sign entry forms for events that will occur during the 4-H year for youths who will become eligible for and enroll in 4-H on September 1, but these youths may not participate in 4-H competitive events and activities until September 1.

About 4-H

4-H Motto

To make the best better.

4-H Pledge

I pledge:

My HEAD to clearer thinking

My HEART to greater loyalty

My HANDS to larger service and My HEALTH to better living.

For my CLUB, my COMMUNITY,
my COUNTRY, and my WORLD.

Parent Pledge

I pledge my HEAD to give my child the information I can, to help him/her see things clearly, and to make wise decisions. I pledge my HEART to encourage and support my child no matter whether he/she has successes or disappointments. I pledge my HANDS to help my child's club; if I cannot be a leader, I can help in many equally important ways. I pledge my HEALTH to keep my child strong and well for a better world through 4-H, for my child's club, our community, our country and our world..

4-H is...

Learning by doing, and is available to all boys and girls, 8 years old and in the 3rd grade through 18 years old as of August 31st of each year, from urban, suburban and rural areas. First, an adult leader brings together youth that have common interests. Second, the youth choose one or more projects. Projects are chosen from over thirty project areas offered. Third, the group enrolls as a club, and forth, meets together to learn and have FUN. Clubs are able to explore 4-H activities, events and trips. In 4-H, there are events happening all year round.

Mission Statement:

Prepare youth to meet the challenges of childhood, adolescence and adulthood, through a coordinated, long-term, progressive series of educational experiences that enhance life skills and develop social, emotional, physical and cognitive competencies.

Adult Volunteers

Volunteers are essential to the successful implementation of the 4-H program. All registered adult 4-H volunteer working directly with 4-H youth in Texas complete a Youth Protection Standards Program (criminal background check) and receive training. Teens may also serve in volunteer roles through the 4-H Leadership project.

Volunteers can serve in a variety of roles,
including the following:

- 4-H Club Managers
- Teachers
- Event Judges
- Community Resource Persons
- Camp Counselors / Chaperones
- Parent Helpers
- Advisory Council Members
- Foundation Members
- Mentors

Parents Role in 4-H

Good youth development programs do not just happen. It takes the combined effort of parents and volunteers along with the guidance of Extension youth development professionals to establish a good 4-H program.

Why Parent Participation?

Through research and experience, a number of positive effects on 4-H, 4-H clubs and 4-H members can be attributed to active parent participation.

- Active parent participation can strengthen and broaden the 4-H program in a local club or county.
- 4-H work would be totally impossible without the active support of interested parents.
- Extending a helping or encouraging hand to a boy or girl is one of the finest ways you can express affection to your children and other youth.
- 4-H is a family affair offering parents many opportunities to participate in a program with their child and build family unity.
- When parental support is good, individual club members receive more personal attention and guidance from leaders and parents.
- Club activities and events will develop and expand with the added support of parents.
- 4-H has a positive influence on the lives of thousands of boys and girls. This happens only when parents care enough to share their time, efforts, and talents.

4-H Brings the Family Together

Closer family unity comes from planning, sharing, and working together. When a family works as a team the strengths, skills, and worth of each family member can be developed and appreciated. With love and understanding, patience and counsel, a parent can offer their child a solid start in a pleasant and beneficial experience. The family becomes a team.

What can parents do to support and help in the 4-H Program?

- Learn what 4-H is about. (purpose, objectives, etc.)
- Exhibit a genuine interest and enthusiasm in 4-H and in your child.
- Encourage participation in 4-H activities. Participation stimulates interest and enthusiasm.
- Assist your child in selecting a project they will enjoy, a project they have the ability to accomplish, and one for which you can assist with.
- Provide transportation for members to local club meetings, county events, and various activities.
- Attend club meetings with your child.
- Get informed as to “What is going on” and continue to be informed.
- Volunteer to be a project or club leader. All adults have abilities that would greatly assist the 4-H program.
- Serve on a committee to help plan and conduct special club activities and events.
- Attend Parent Leader Meetings.

4-H Record Books

Each 4-H member is encourage to keep a record of his or her 4-H work. Record are not an extra task, but a part of the learning experience! By your 4-her recording this activities that can keep track of all the different learning experiences they have had in the 4-H program. Record Books are open to all age divisions (junior, intermediate, and senior age divisions).

Through 4-H Record Books, your 4-Her will learn how to set goals, keep track of task/awards/contest, and reflect on what they learned throughout the year.

4-Hers learn:

- To communicate in writing
- To organize thoughts
- To set goals and work towards these goals
- To make short and long term goals
- To evaluate a record of growth from year to year
- To recognize skills learned, goals accomplished and successes experienced

4-H Record Books have four main parts:

1. Check Sheet
 2. Personal Information Page
 3. 4-H Story & Photo Portfolio
 4. Report Forms
1. A 4-H record book teaches a desirable habit. Modern day society demands that each and everyone, no matter what vocation, keep track of financial and business matters. Developing this habit early in life will be a valuable asset.
 2. A 4-H record book is a measuring stick. Members and leaders are kept informed of the member's progress and will usually stimulate self-improvement by the member.
 3. A 4-H record book is a mirror. It will reflect accomplishments and therefore serve as the basis for awards, trips, and other recognition.
 4. A 4-H record book provides youth with a time for reflection about who they are, what their goals are, what they have accomplished in the past year, etc.

Record books are required to receive star awards at the county achievement banquet.
